

Win a luxurious mini break worth £1500

To celebrate our 150th issue, DIVA has teamed up with Mains of Taymouth. This fabulous five-star country estate in Highland Perthshire, Scotland, is offering one lucky reader and their partner a luxurious three-night stay in Bell Tower cottage, the premier couples' cottage at Mains of Taymouth, Kenmore, a charming village at the head of Loch Tay. Bell Tower really does represent the ultimate in luxury for couples. Set on three levels, it incorporates a designer spa bathroom; sauna/steam room and four-poster bed. The ground floor features an open-plan lounge with kitchen and dining area. Here you'll find a wood-burning stove, high-spec Italian kitchen and floor-to-ceiling windows overlooking the scenic courtyard. On the first floor is the bathroom with its roll-top bath and Finnish steam and sauna room. Dimmer lights, piped music and under-floor heating to the granite tiles add a truly decadent touch! Wind your way up the spiral staircase to the second floor level, where you'll find the stunning bedroom under the ancient Bell Tower. Lavishly furnished, this room has a four-poster bed and LCD TV. If you can tear yourself away from the decadent interiors, Mains of Taymouth has its own reasonably-priced golf course, restaurant, brasserie and luxury deli and gift shop. The deli is well stocked with delicious treats, many of which are locally sourced, and it will even deliver food parcels direct to your cottage. If cooking's not your thing, why not eat out in the brasserie? There are luxury cottages in a courtyard setting and contemporary mews-style holiday homes at Castle Gardens. Three new large contemporary houses for the lettings market have just been launched within the same estate. Mains of Taymouth is also the ideal venue for Civil Partnership ceremonies, with enough space to accommodate all your guests, too. Kenmore gives you easy access to some of Highland Perthshire's greatest attractions, such as the House of Bruar, where visitors can purchase quality products including cashmere, and Pitlochry, a picturesque town very popular with visitors. Other local attractions in the area include Tay Forest Park, with its walks and mountain bike trails, superb fishing for brown trout and salmon in the River Tay and Loch, and water sports from white-water rafting to sailing and wind surfing. The cottage mini-break is available from January 24th-26th, perfect timing to chase away those post-Christmas and New Year blues. You can also buy into this fabulous location with the launch of holiday ownership apartments – timeshare for the 21st century. A one-off purchase, starting from £8700, will secure a guaranteed holiday week until 2063 in a spacious two-bedroom apartment that can comfortably sleep six.
