

DANNII'S HORSE RACY

GORGEOUS Dannii Menzies gets mare-naked — by horsing around with neigh clothes on.

The 23-year-old stunner rode Lady Godiva-style on pony Chloe ahead of next week's Blair Castle international horse trials in Perthshire.

She was happy to help after organisers dedicated the event to raising cash for Macmillan Cancer Support.

And keen horse rider Dannii — whose grandmother battled breast cancer — said: "The work Macmillan does is very important.

"My gran's a huge supporter and raised lots of money. I'm glad I can do something to help too."

The four-day event starts on August 26.
